

DESCRIPTION

Gorgona showcases a straw-yellow color with gleaming golden reflections, exuding crystal-clear brilliance. Its bouquet is a mesmerizing explosion of Mediterranean flora, encompassing a delightful array of white and yellow flowers, with daisy, chamomile, hawthorn, mimosa, and broom taking center stage. This splendid symphony of scents gives way to distinct hints of exotic fruits, such as passion fruit, mango, and pineapple. The fruity notes unfold gracefully, revealing zesty undertones of citron and tangerine. Towards the conclusion, the olfactory experience embraces a mineral essence, characterized by invigorating iodized accents. Upon tasting, Gorgona captivates the senses with a savory allure, while simultaneously offering a refreshing and enduring presence. Its remarkable persistence leaves a lasting impression, and the overall sensory experience is utterly fulfilling. Year after year, Gorgona never fails to astonish, continually surpassing itself in the complexity and intensity of the delightful sensations it imparts. This exceptional wine is a testament to the extraordinary terroir of its origin, crafting a masterpiece that is truly one of a kind.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Grape variety: Vermentino
Country: Italy
Area: Tuscany
Color: White
Category: Wine
Flavor profile: Refined, Full Bodied, Soft

