

DESCRIPTION

The grapes are grown 450 meters above sea level, which minimizes in the influence the sea has on the flavour. Forcada is surprising for its aromatic intensity and freshness. Herbaceous notes bring to mind the mediterranean forest, whereas hints of iris and palette-seducing citrus hints are anchored in a backbone of bright, tangy acidity that carries the structure and essence of the variety.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Color: White