

COPPA COCKTAILS, COSMOPOLITAN

DESCRIPTION

The origin of the classic Cosmopolitan cocktail is often disputed. In popular opinion, the modern-day Cosmo was created by Toby Cecchini at the Manhattan bar, The Oden, in 1987. By blending citron flavored vodka, liqueur, cranberry juice and fresh lime juice, the contemporary cosmopolitan was born. With the famous TV show Sex and the City, the Cosmo later achieved iconic cocktail status, becoming a top cocktail choice for any girl's night out. To sip in style, make sure to try the Coppa Cocktails Cosmopolitan, a must have for any big celebration. Pour as cold as possible in your glass of choice. Garnish with a slice of orange. Sedimentation might occur, shake before use. Once opened, keep in a cool place.
