

DESCRIPTION

That night, only the headlights of his legendary Renault 4x4 illuminated the darkness as Don Miguel drove tirelessly through endless vineyards. Guided by instinct and his vast experience, he discovered lost vines that had grown, wild and resistant, in the middle of nature. Don Miguel harvested these grapes to make wines that captured the essence of his travels and adventures. A unique wine that no one else could have made, rooted in incomparable vineyards that held the key to its creation.
