

ORIN SWIFT, MANNEQUIN

DESCRIPTION

---

This Californian Chardonnay is a masterpiece by winemaker Dave Phinney, who selects grapes from top vineyards in the Russian River Valley, Atlas Peak, and Santa Maria Valley. The result is a refined and expressive wine that reflects the versatility of California. In the glass, the wine sparkles in a vibrant gold with a green shimmer. The nose opens with seductive aromas of yellow peach, crème fraîche, and graham cracker. The taste is rich and layered, with notes of white peach, forest pear, caramelized apple, candied walnut, and lemon peel. The finish is round and smooth, with a subtle hint of toffee.

VINIFICATION

---

The wine has been aged in wood for 8 months, 35% of which was in new French oak barrels.

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

---

- Dave is well on his way to becoming a wine legend. Everything he touches with his unique approach to winemaking turns to gold. He does things his own way.
- Anyone who sees Orin Swift wines is automatically intrigued by the labels. The stories and execution are phenomenal and go hand in hand with the wine.
- When you taste a wine by Dave Phinney, you immediately recognize his signature. From the rich fruit extraction to the subtle use of oak. These wines are sensational in every respect.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

---

Grape variety: Chardonnay
Brand: Orin Swift
Country: United States
Area: California
Color: White
Category: Wine
Flavor profile: Round, Full Bodied, Soft
Alcohol percentage: 15.00