

DESCRIPTION

Bright, and sharp. Fine bubbles creating an elegant perlage. Seductive fresh, floral, spring-like nose. Silky on the palate, with a long finish revealing the fruity notes of the Pinot Noir. A brut for lovers of harmony.

VINIFICATION

Every morning in the Curicó Valley, when the sun rises over the Andes, a ritual that unites land and vine begins. These majestic vineyards at the foot of the mountains enjoy a cold climate, ideal for growing the Pinot Noir variety. This sparkling wine has been made according to the traditional method, with second fermentation in the bottle.
